

Stor E Telling
Karen Chace © 2003
Storytelling Magazine July/August 2003

Arabian Nights

Let Scheherazade lead you through the ancient and mysterious world of Ali Baba and Sinbad; fall under the spell of a 1001 nights.

<http://www.library.cornell.edu/colldev/mideast/arabnit.htm>

Folk and Fairy Tales From Around the World

Compiled by the librarian and students of Sunrise Mountain High School, this incredible index of Folk and Fairy Tales lists stories by country of origin, story title and book title. If you are preparing a multicultural storytelling program this is the place to start!

http://staffweb.peoriaud.k12.az.us/Karlene_Edwards/New%20SMHS%20Webpage/Miscellaneous/FolktalesFromAroundtheWorld.htm

Nasreddin Hodja

Filled with information and stories about the beloved character of Turkish tales, this website is also a portal to many other Hodja sites. Here is put a small slice of his wisdom... "Hodja! What do they do with the old full moons?"

"They cut them up into small pieces and make the stars!"

http://w1.871.telia.com/~u87109316/index_eng.htm

Andrew Lang ~ The Literature Network

There isn't a pot of gold at the end of this rainbow, but a prism of fairytale books to add to your riches.

http://www.online-literature.com/andrew_lang/

The Mountain Times

I love finding storytelling treasures in the most unlikely places, like this weekly publication from North Carolina. This section contains jewels of mountain lore; the people, historical stories, folktales, myths and memorable mountain people. Pull up that old rocking chair, sit a spell and enjoy the stories of the mountains.

<http://www.mountaintimes.com/summer/locallore.php3>

Myths, Folktales and Fairytales

Explore folklore with Nina Jaffe, experience a storytelling workshop with Gerald Fierst or a myth writing workshop with Jane Yolen. If that isn't enough, there are teacher guides, assessments and rubrics, and of course stories!

http://teacher.scholastic.com/writewit/mff/folktales_home.htm

Sounds of the World's Animals

Thinking of adding some realistic sounds to your animal stories? This site will have you braying and neighing along with the best of them. It even offers the phonetic spellings so you learn the sounds in various languages from around the world.

<http://www.georgetown.edu/faculty/ballc/animals/animals.html>

Spirit of Trees

Cristy West's growing website offers curricular resources, essays, organizational links, poetry and folktales from some of our leading storytellers and scholars. Rest in the cool shade of its branches and let the spirit of the trees nourish your soul.

<http://www.spiritoftrees.org/>

Content compiled by Karen Chace, Professional Storyteller & Web Researcher

East Freetown MA 02727 • (508) 763-8565 • Info@StoryBug.net • www.StoryBug.net

Permission for private use is granted, Distribution of this material in any format (including via electronic means) is expressly prohibited without Karen's written permission.

Copyright ©2006 Karen Chace/StoryBug.net, unless otherwise indicated. All rights reserved.